Walk the (Covid-19) Wilderness with Moses, pt 23:

The Blessings of Obedience (Numbers 13-14; Deuteronomy 28)

1. What makes your list of “the things that really matter in life”? How did this message help you consider obeying God as something that needs to be on the list?
2. Discuss the reality that God often conditions blessing upon obedience. How do you answer the person who says: “If God is really loving, He can’t only do good to those who follow Him?”
3. Reread Deuteronomy 28. Sit and think about all the “blessings” God promises those who obey. How do you respond? How does it challenge you?
4. Read again the account of the 12 spies in Numbers 13-14. What stands out most to you? Why?
5. What are your greatest challenges to simply taking God at His word?
6. If we really believe obedience brings blessing, why do we so easily balk at God’s commands?
7. What faithless voices do you need to tune out these days? How do you do it?
8. Where are you currently challenged to step forward in faith as you obey God’s word?
9. How might we cultivate the different kind of spirit Joshua and Caleb evidenced?
10. What thoughts, desires and/or actions do the chapters in this study inspire in you?
11. What would you like to discuss that has not already been raised?
