

Suggested Discussion Questions for 10/30/2022 Message:
Ministry Partnership, pt 2, Romans 16:1-16

1. Think of a person who has impacted your life and introduce them (briefly) to the group with a couple words or phrases that characterize their contribution to you.
2. When you read the list of people Paul greets, what stands out most to you?
3. Make a list of the qualities Paul uses to describe his friends in these greetings. What do they tell you about what's important in ministry partnership?
4. If you were to replace a name on the list with yours, which one would you most aspire to be?
5. Of the principles shared in the message, which encouraged or challenged you most? Why?
6. What additional insights or principles would you add?
7. If you were to receive a letter from someone greeting you in a similar manner, what ascriptions or qualities would you hope they might use?
8. What attitudes or perspectives does Paul's example in this text inspire in you?
9. How do you want to adjust to better highlight the community of believers in your time and priorities?
10. What would you like to discuss from this passage that hasn't yet been addressed?
11. How would you like others to pray for you to apply your insights from this study?